

Digital Content Developer for Primary Healthcare

Job Description/Person Specification

Overview

Working with our medical and technical team to create and source high quality primary healthcare training content, activities and assessment for rural health workers in their continuous professional development activities.

Location/Contract

Flexible (remote/home-based) worker. 2 year fixed term contract - 0.5 FTE (20 hours per week)

Salary

Salary will be in the range of £26,600 to £28,700 pa pro-rata

Key Duties and Responsibilities

- Preparation of high quality primary healthcare training content, activities and assessment for delivery via mobile devices - to supplement existing paper-based course manuals - appropriate to the skill, education and knowledge level of rural health workers in Ethiopia
- Develop continuous professional development activities and assessment for rural health workers
- Source appropriate multimedia content, ensuring all licensing conditions are met
- Review and revise training content, activities and assessment exercises based on feedback
- Liaise and collaborate with other organisations providing primary healthcare training to rural health workers
- Provide feedback and contribute towards the development roadmap of our mobile learning platform

Skills/Expertise/Competencies

Required:

- Background in teaching primary healthcare
- Experience in instructional design
- Experience of effective assessment methods for both theoretical and practical primary health care knowledge & skills
- Well organised and able to work independently to tight deadlines
- Excellent communication skills - both written and oral - and a keen eye for detail
- Experience of creating professional development course materials and assessment activities
- Experience of preparing course content and activities to the highest standards of presentation, accuracy and educational value.

Desirable:

- Experience of creating blending learning courses with Moodle
- Experience of training health workers in African countries
- Experience of teacher/trainer training

Further Information

More information about Digital Campus can be found on our website: <http://digital-campus.org>